BSBC Church Profile

We are an established downtown urban evangelical church with a core identity rooted in God-honoring, Bible-centered ministry, marked by a dynamic, Spirit-led, and praying atmosphere. Our vibrant congregation is multigenerational, and multi-ethnic, encompassing a diverse blend of ages, educational backgrounds, and socioeconomic statuses. Known for a loving, faith-filled, and generous family culture with a hands-on approach to outreach. Our Sunday morning worship offers three, sometimes four simultaneous services; a traditional service in the sanctuary, a contemporary service in the gym, a service for Mandarin-speaking believers and seekers, and monthly, a youth-led service on the youth floor. Currently, we are a growing, transitional, and imperfect community actively experiencing healing and dynamic change, as we seek God's direction for our next chapter.

Fredericton City Profile

Fredericton, the capital of New Brunswick, is a white-collar city driven by its government and university sectors, offering a small city with a big town feel. It is primarily English-speaking, but is becoming increasingly multi-ethnic and international, largely due to academic and employment growth, though the community structure is characterized by deeply rooted family groups. The city promotes an active outdoor lifestyle with an extensive trail system, parks, rivers and forests, and hosts various events all-year round, all within a short commute, yet still struggles with visible financial inequities and challenges for newcomers to penetrate established social circles.
