

From Pews to Pilgrimages...

At Palmer Atlantic, we understand that a church is much more than just bricks and mortar. That's why we've tailored our church insurance services to offer your church much more than just coverage for your building.

Not only will our dedicated network of experts appraise your in-house facilities such as pews, organs, instruments and furnishings, we can also recommend coverage plans for events taking place outside of the church, including bible camps, retreats, fundraising galas, community barbecues, pilgrimages, and many other off-site functions.*
